UNCLE SAM'LL GIVE YOU GARDEN IN POTOMAC PARK

An additional tract of fine land in Potomac Park has been released to the Agricultural Department by Col. C. S. Ridley, director of public buildings and grounds, and will be used for garden grounds this year. This tract will be divided into larger plots than those already allotted, and will offer an epportunity for any good gardeners or clubs or association of growers to secure a very desirable space in which to grow a home supply of vegetables. It will require some effort to clear and prepare this land, and only those willing to roll up their sleaves and go after $7% the garden with the idea of making it 701/4 a success should apply.

Lots will be assigned by William . Hall, agriculture agent, 220 Fourteenth street southwest, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 319.
